Christmas Music

The music associated with the celebration of Christmas has an appeal not found in that of any other season. During the month of December WKAR and WKAR-FM will broadcast many programs in which this music will be featured.

Highlighting the special events to be broadcast will be a concert by the Michigan State College Symphony Orchestra on December 5 and the Annual Christmas Concert by the combined A Cappella Choir, Chorus and Orchestra on December 12. Both these concerts are scheduled at 4:00 P.M. The M.S.C. Women's Glee Club will be heard in a program of carols on December 14 at 3:15 P.M. On December 19 at 2:30 P.M., the Lansing Matinee Musical Chorus will present a new and interesting cantata, "A Ceremony of Carols."

"Music You Want," our daily program featuring Victor recordings of the finest in music, will also include compositions appropriate to the season. This program, recently added to our regular WKAR schedule, is heard at 3:00 P.M. Throughout the week just preceding Christmas Day, at 1:30 P.M., the Christmas Calendar will be heard.

Other special programs will be arranged to bring you the music of Christmas at its best. Through these programs the entire staff of WKAR and WKAR-FM extend holiday greetings to all our listeners.
